

2020 TRACE Prize for Investigative Reporting

Entry Form | Deadline: 31 January 2020

Please submit completed entries to goconnell@TRACEinternational.org by 31 January 2020.

- Entries must involve business-related bribery or financial crime.
- You may submit your own work, or you may nominate the work of someone else. If you nominate another's work, please obtain their permission to do so.
- Entries must have appeared in print, online or broadcast media during 2019. Any entry not originally written/produced in English must be accompanied by a translation.
- Books are not accepted.
- If an entry only appeared in print, please include a scan. If a scan produces an unclear result, please also include a transcript (Word document or PDF) of the article.
- If an entry is broadcast journalism (TV, radio, online video) please send a link or file.

Submission Details

Author name(s)
Title and organization of author(s)
Email(s)
Phone
How did you hear about the prize?
Title of article(s) and dates of publication
Summary of investigation(s) Please include or attach a 250 – 500 word summary of the article(s) being submitted. Include the obstacles overcome in "getting the story." This description should include a brief synopsis of the article(s) and the major bribery uncovered and reported on. If helpful, please include biographical information on the reporter.
Link to article(s)/investigation(s) If no link is available, please send the article(s) as an attachment.	