Malaysia

Overall Risk Score: 38

Risk Level: low

This score is a composite of the four domain scores discussed below, which are weighted and combined to produce the overall country risk score. Each country is given a score from 1 to 100 for each domain and for the total bribery risk. A higher score indicates a higher risk of business bribery. Assessments of whether a given domain score is “good” or “poor” are made relative to all other jurisdictions within that domain.

1. Business Interactions with Government: Malaysia receives a good score of 33 in this domain, based on a low degree of government interaction, a medium expectation of bribes, and a very low regulatory burden.

2. Anti-bribery Deterrence and Enforcement: Malaysia receives a medium score of 53 in this domain, based on a low quality of anti-bribery dissuasion and a high quality of anti-bribery enforcement.

3. Government and Civil Service Transparency: Malaysia receives a good score of 36 in this domain, based on medium governmental transparency and good transparency of financial interests.

4. Capacity for Civil Society Oversight: Malaysia receives a medium score of 39 in this domain, based on a medium degree of media freedom/quality and a medium degree of civil society engagement.
