Somalia

Overall Risk Score: 80

Risk Level: very high

This score is a composite of the four domain scores discussed below, which are weighted and combined to produce the overall country risk score. Each country is given a score from 1 to 100 for each domain and for the total bribery risk. A higher score indicates a higher risk of business bribery. Assessments of whether a given domain score is “good” or “poor” are made relative to all other jurisdictions within that domain.

1. Business Interactions with Government: Somalia receives a very poor score of 79 in this domain, based on a medium degree of government interaction, a high expectation of bribes, and a very high regulatory burden.

2. Anti-bribery Deterrence and Enforcement: Somalia receives a very poor score of 88 in this domain, based on a low quality of anti-bribery dissuasion and a very low quality of anti-bribery enforcement.

3. Government and Civil Service Transparency: Somalia receives a very poor score of 98 in this domain, based on very poor governmental transparency and very poor transparency of financial interests.

4. Capacity for Civil Society Oversight: Somalia receives a poor score of 58 in this domain, based on a low degree of media freedom/quality and a low degree of civil society engagement.

TRACE Bribery Risk Typology:

Failed state

This group is typified by very low state capacity, lacking state apparatus that could curtail the volume or severity of arbitrary bribe demands.
