

Ireland

Overall Risk Score: 16

Risk Level: very low

This score is a composite of the four domain scores discussed below, which are weighted and combined to produce the overall country risk score. Each country is given a score from 1 to 100 for each domain and for the total bribery risk. A higher score indicates a higher risk of business bribery. Assessments of whether a given domain score is “good” or “poor” are made relative to all other jurisdictions within that domain.

- 1. Business Interactions with Government: Ireland receives a good score of 24 in this domain, based on a low degree of government interaction, a low expectation of bribes, and a low regulatory burden.
- 2. Anti-bribery Deterrence and Enforcement: Ireland receives a very good score of 14 in this domain, based on a very high quality of anti-bribery dissuasion and a high quality of anti-bribery enforcement.
- 3. Government and Civil Service Transparency: Ireland receives a very good score of 8 in this domain, based on very good governmental transparency and very good transparency of financial interests.
- 4. Capacity for Civil Society Oversight: Ireland receives a good score of 11 in this domain, based on a high degree of media freedom/quality and a very high degree of civil society engagement.
