North Korea

Overall Risk Score: 94

Risk Level: very high

This score is a composite of the four domain scores discussed below, which are weighted and combined to produce the overall country risk score. Each country is given a score from 1 to 100 for each domain and for the total bribery risk. A higher score indicates a higher risk of business bribery. Assessments of whether a given domain score is “good” or “poor” are made relative to all other jurisdictions within that domain.

1. Business Interactions with Government: North Korea receives a very poor score of 100 in this domain, based on a very high degree of government interaction and a high expectation of bribes.

2. Anti-bribery Deterrence and Enforcement: North Korea receives a very poor score of 100 in this domain, based on a very low quality of anti-bribery dissuasion and a very low quality of anti-bribery enforcement.

3. Government and Civil Service Transparency: North Korea receives a poor score of 74 in this domain, based on very poor governmental transparency and medium transparency of financial interests.

4. Capacity for Civil Society Oversight: North Korea receives a very poor score of 100 in this domain, based on a very low degree of media freedom/quality and a very low degree of civil society engagement.
