Syria

Overall Risk Score: 88

Risk Level: very high

This score is a composite of the four domain scores discussed below, which are weighted and combined to produce the overall country risk score. Each country is given a score from 1 to 100 for each domain and for the total bribery risk. A higher score indicates a higher risk of business bribery. Assessments of whether a given domain score is “good” or “poor” are made relative to all other jurisdictions within that domain.

1. Business Interactions with Government: Syria receives a very poor score of 91 in this domain, based on a very high degree of government interaction and a very high expectation of bribes.

2. Anti-bribery Deterrence and Enforcement: Syria receives a very poor score of 100 in this domain, based on a very low quality of anti-bribery dissuasion and a very low quality of anti-bribery enforcement.

3. Government and Civil Service Transparency: Syria receives a poor score of 79 in this domain, based on poor governmental transparency and poor transparency of financial interests.

4. Capacity for Civil Society Oversight: Syria receives a very poor score of 82 in this domain, based on a very low degree of media freedom/quality and a very low degree of civil society engagement.
